Sharing Wisdom

Dear Ladies,

With a hopeful eye on Spring, Women's Forum March 2021 honors Women's History Month with two lionesses of the world of poetry, then and now.

Emily Dickinson and Joni Mitchell, centuries apart, have spoken through their verses truths that comfort and inspire, make us reflect and reach.

Along with studying their life stories we will delve into some of their poems together, sharing our own perspectives.

As always, we will be working with documentary videos.

For links to the videos and to join in our program of virtual discussions via Zoom please contact us at womensforumusa@gmail.com. You'll then be added to our email distribution list for detailed news of all events.

Think Spring, daffodils, forsythia, fuzzy Lamb's Ears...

Evelyn ;)
