

WOMEN'S FORUM

Sharing Wisdom

"Apostle of the English Renaissance"

Dear Ladies,

For the month of March we return to ~The Gilded Age/Belle Epoque/Victorian Era~a time of supreme cultural, scientific and intellectual fecundity. Western Civilization was in full flower.

Having seen in our own time the power of self-invention and reinvention among celebrity personalities and the interest and popularity they engender; we pay homage to a legendary self-inventor. Novelist, dramatist, journalist, poet, fashion plate, devout proponent of Aestheticism, socialite, bon vivant extraordinaire, Oscar Wilde's story is a glittering "historical novel" in its highs and lows, comedy and tragedy. One of the quintessential talents/characters of the Victorian Era whose wit and wisdom has endured throughout the ages, Oscar Wilde remains timeless, a cultural icon.

For links to the videos and to join in our programs please contact us at womensforumusa@gmail.com. Your address will then be added to our email distribution list for detailed announcements of all events.

Think Spring!

Evelyn