Rich Conversation

Dear Ladies,

Been thinking about how to bring WF into this coming holiday season; one that is brimming with promise. The scourge we have endured and all of its painful tentacles seems to be diminishing. Hopefully, our world is ready for a rebirth, a renewal, a return to JOY.

Instead of going with our usual study of a character or event, I found an unlikely guest, (as topic) to invite to our pre-holiday program.

A few years ago (seems like an eternity away, doesn't it?) a charming film starring a cast of favorites was released and many of us enjoyed the storyline, the pathos and the comedy.

Now, in a much different way, the story that at first seemed only like light comedy/romance takes on a new perspective.

For our entre into Holiday 2021, THE BEST EXOTIC MARIGOLD HOTEL is our topic, which I trust, having seen it again with "new eyes" will provoke rich conversation.

For links to the videos and to join in our programs please contact us at womensforumusa@gmail.com. Your address will then be added to our email distribution list for detailed announcements of all events.

Wishing you a very Happy Thanksgiving!
