

WOMEN'S FORUM

Sharing Wisdom

November 2025

Dear Ladies,

While perusing the cultural offerings available to us for late Autumn, I happened upon this little gem ~

Claude Monet once claimed that Venice was "too beautiful to be painted", a challenge he embraced by creating an extraordinary sequence of works depicting the Italian city. "Monet and Venice" is the first exhibition to focus on Monet's luminous Venetian paintings - a radiant yet underexplored chapter in the artist's late career - since their debut in 1912. (Museum promo)

For our first November event WF will travel to the Brooklyn Museum for New York's largest museum show dedicated to Monet in over 25 years!! A joyful start to the wonderful season ahead.

TRIP TO MONET EXHIBITION - BROOKLYN MUSEUM:

Thursday November 6. Bus leaves Dillon Library at 9am. Return pick-up 3pm. Admission 45. (Does not include museum entry.)

*To register see below.

~~~~~

Extraordinary Women has been our "flagship" topic leading off the WF program since our very first event. From then on, we have certainly veered far and wide with a multitude of topics. But time and again, the life of one of the true greats comes to the fore and we are informed, edified even enlightened by her story as told through a documentary. This time around is a little different - the honored Extraordinary Woman will "make an appearance" at the Women's Forum November 20th luncheon event and tell us her story herself!

Carol Simon Levin portrays Margaret Bourke-White, the fearless photographer from Bound Brook NJ who braved Soviet authorities, Southern bigotry, Nazi bombs, torpedoes and sniper fire to take photographs of many of the most consequential events of the 20th century. (from Ms. Levin's website)

LUNCH WITH MARGARET BOURKE WHITE: Thursday
November 20 at noon, Dillon Library, Bedminster NJ Admission
20. *To register see below.

~~~~~

Upcoming dates for WF events: December 4 & 18 January 8 & 29.

*To register reach us at womensforumusa@gmail.com or call the Dillon Library at (908-234 2325)

Enjoy the beautiful Autumn Days!

Learn and Share Your Wisdom.

My very best,

Evelyn Breheney Glynn

Founder/Director Women's Forum