WOMEN'S FORUM

Dear Ladies,

Hoping all are well and feeling the patriotic fervor blooming as we celebrate this banner year for our country.

Resuming our homage to American History and 250th year of our independence, we continue with the series that chronicles the struggle, bravery and commitment of the colonists.

So far with Episodes 1 & 2 we've seen how the movement toward independence began - how these amazing individuals incensed by the tyranny of Britain inspired each other (even some staunch Loyalists) to fight for liberty - thus leading to the formation of the Continental Army. With George Washington as commander the colonists would challenge the most powerful military in the world!

The story continues...

Episode 3 - The Times That Try Men's Souls

Luncheon: Thursday, February 12 at noon. Dillon Library, Bedminster NJ. Admission 20.

Episode 4 – Oh, Fatal Ambition

Luncheon: Thursday, February 26 at noon. Dillon Library, Bedminster NJ. Admission 20.

To register for these events contact us at:
womensforumusa@gmail.com or Dillon Library (908) 234 2325

Upcoming dates for WF:

March 12 & 26, April 9 & 23

Stay warm and cozy ~

Evelyn Breheney Glynn

Founder/Director Women's Forum