Sharing Wisdom

September 2026

Dear Ladies,

Continuing on our year of tribute to America 250, we come to September which will be dedicated to American Icon - Frank Lloyd Wright.

Considered to be "America's Architect", his timeless original concepts, now iconic, mark the first modern architecture designation in the United States on the World Heritage List. You just have to think of Falling Water - "A masterpiece of organic architecture, it is built directly over an active waterfall. The home features cantilivered concrete terraces that blend with the natural rock." or the Guggenheim Museum - "A modernist masterpiece. Its organic shape defies the strict Manhattan grid with a spiral ramp coiling upward toward a glass dome." ...to know why reviews like these are innumerable!

And, as dramatic as his artistic manifestations are, his personal life amid admirers and detractors, triumph and tragedy was equally as compelling. (Oftentimes a look "behind the scenes" of the lives of the highly celebrated, famous or infamous, will reveal a "backstory" that either explains, defines, defies comprehension or humanizes.)

At our September luncheon we'll screen a documentary about the master which will surely lead into a rich discussion about this American Icon.

LUNCH WITH "AMERICA'S ARCHITECT": Thursday, September 10 at noon. Dillon Library, Bedminster NJ. Admission 30. *To register see below.

"THE GUGGENHEIM"

Talk about a "head-turner" - imagine a first time encounter with this world class wonder sitting proudly amongst its staid and traditional Upper East Side neighbors! Frank Lloyd Wright's magnificent creation the Guggenheim Museum awaits as our destination for late September. (Ahh...Fall in the City, can't get here soon enough.) Last year we visited the Upper East Side for a "tour" of the smaller museums in the area and found that a stroll around the neighborhood was also a good idea.

The Guggenheim, Central Park, Madison Ave. = Great Art. Fashion and Food. What's not to love!!

TRIP TO THE GUGGENHEIM MUSEUM: Thursday September 24. Bus leaves Dillon Library, Bedminster NJ at 9am. Return pickup 3pm. at the museum. Admission 45. (Does not include museum entry.) *To register see below.
